

Tabby's parents were Daisy Poppy and Redleaf a warrior queen and deputy of the clan. They died while trying to save their kits from a fox. Tabby and the kits survived, but was left as a stray. Her folks had found her while taking a walk and she ~~was~~ loved her life as a kittypet ever since.

Bluestar goes on to tell Tabby that her parents are from Thunderclan and how she was a clan-born descendant. Then she explains the traditions of the different clans.
