

So He Monologued

Well, you see, team Rocket's found small traces of legendary pokemon. But it was useless in that form. So, we managed to place them into like-type pokemon. Until they're ready. With those legendaries, we could hold the entire region of Pansolm. But your dad stole them before the final experiment, then tried to escape us by leaving Kanto. So our leader sent out me, his second in command, Giovanni. And we WILL get those pokemon back! Actually, we already know Ike had the pokemon, but we wanted reinforcements before the spatchery!

SUCKA!!

No! My Pokemon!

I still have my Wobbuffet. Why?

Oh, He don't have a legendary in his, our scientists just love Wobbuffet.

Ike's last hope BUT got his Wobbuffet to incredible levels. Meanwhile..

Victory is ours Nothing can go wrong!

Prepare yourselves

And their all evil!

Oh my

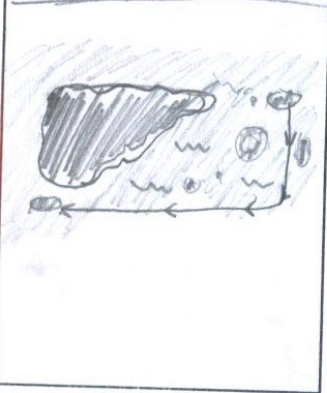

Hey, Ike, I know how to stop team Rocket!

Yes! How?

Take your Wobbuffet to Newford, in the granite cave. Make an explosion on it, then have it use counter to blow a hole in the wall. There, you'll find a legendary pokemon. It will restore balance to Hoenn.

Oh yeah, and I can't do it myself because of Magic

So Ike went to newfona

And into the granit cave
